West Valley City Breaks Ground on Fairbourne Station Promenade

- WHAT: Fairbourne Station Promenade Groundbreaking
- WHEN: Thursday, July 14, 2011, 10:00 a.m.
- WHERE: Promenade work site, west of City Hall (3600 South Constitution Blvd.)
- WHO: Mayor Mike Winder will be joined by the City Council, City Manager Wayne Pyle and Parks and Recreation Director Kevin Astill in breaking ground on the project.
- WHY: Groundbreaking for the Fairbourne Station Promenade marks a major milestone in the development of Fairbourne Station, a project that will soon become the focal point of West Valley City. Upon completion, the Promenade will provide four acres of green space and will include walking paths, water features and interactive installations.

The first phase of the promenade is expected to be completed in July 2012.
